'm peeping through a crack of the door. My mother stands close by me; The boys that pass by it, more than a score, Dressed in their best clothes, I see.

Poor Nicklas is passing by so sad. Would I might run out at last, And throw my arms around my sweet lad; My mother is holding me fast.

Rich Michael comes strutting along so proud, My mother has pushed me outside; My heart is so sad, I'm sobbing aloud, And I'm proud Michael's bride.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

In consequence of the repeated injuries to the drilling machine read in the removal or "Corwin Rock," by vessels running over the same, and the consequent delay of the work, the attention of martners is again called to the necessity of keeping clear of the rock, as the machinery for drilling is always on the rock under the water, whether the working vessel is at that place

ttention is called to the fact that the exact position

Attention is called to the fact that the exact position of 'to win Reck' will be shown unring the day by a red flar attached to the budy or vessel minored over the rock, and during the night by a white light. The range in entering the harbor to avoid "Corwin Rect," Nix's Mate on Bunker Hill Monument, as alreed, late down in the sailing directions and pilots and others in following these directions will avoid any darger of collision, or of other damage to the important work now going on for the improvement of the channel at that, old J. LUMBER MERCHANT,

NOTICE,—THE UNDERSIGNED

Would call attention of the public to his

NEW GOLDEN EAGLE FURNAGE.

This is an entirely new heater. It is so comstructed as to at once commend their to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast from it is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly stetight; self-ciening, having no pipes or drums to betaken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in use,
The hygrometric condition of the air as produced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once dewill produce a perfectly heatthy atmosphere.

Those in want of a complete Heating Apparatos would do well to call and examine the Golden Eagle.
